SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

GEORGETOWN TEXAS

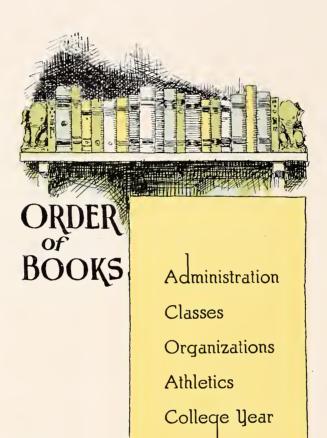

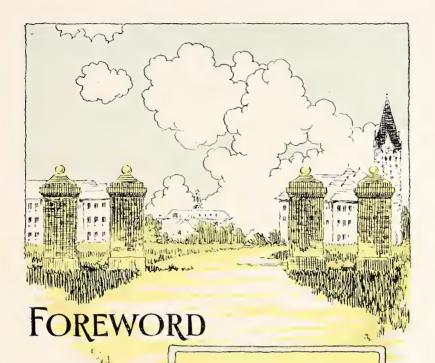

the staff carries out the wishes of those whose hopes are for a brighter future for Southwestern by dedicating this, the 17th volume of The Sou'wester to one whose loyalty and faithfulness to the institution has for a number of years been one of its most valuable assets,

Dr. John C. Granbery

beloved and honored by all because of his untiring, optimistic and unselfish devotion to the ideal of "The Greater Southwestern"

T is the purpose of the Sou'wester '22 to portray not only the college as we have found it and around which will always linger the happiest of memories, but to reveal the future as well, and by looking forward see something of what is needed, especially in the way of buildings, to bring about the bigger and better college of which we dream. In carrying out this idea we have tried to make every page truly SOUTHWESTERN, on the opening pages the buildings as they now are, the campus as it will be, and throughout the book attempting to suggest needed changes and improvements necessary in the future which is sure to bring the "Greater Southwestern"

The Spirit of Southwestern

HE story of Southwestern University is one of the triumph of ideals. As it stands now with its history of fifty years almost completed, it represents "the precious life-blood of a master-spirit, embalmed and treasured up on purpose to a life beyond life". It was not born of a popular movement. Is has never been tainted by the influence of ill-gotten wealth or of any who would exploit education in the interest of material enterprise. Its growth and its fruitage have been a vital expression of the power of noble ideals over difficult conditions. In its great body of alumni and former students, in its contribution, through them, to the higher civilization and the spiritual life of the people of Texas, in its service to Christian thought and religious living, in its present mental and moral activities in student body and faculty, more even than in its now substantial and more or less adequate physical plant and equipment, it is a monument to the courage, devotion, spiritual vision and ideals of life of FRANCIS ASBURY MOOD and a few kindred spirts who encouraged him, supported him and followed his leadership in the first decade of its history. They created something out of nothing. They made a palm to grow in a veritable desert. We live today in its shade and are refreshed by its fruit.

Now SOUTHWESTERN has traditions. In the shadowy halls of college memories there hang old myrtle wreathes, and there is the sweet aroma of faded rose-leaves still persistent. The college herself has gone through struggles and has made advances and won victories. She has had her lovers, her defenders, her heroes. Men have suffered for her, and given their lives to her. In many a conflict her men and women have won laurels in her name. She has survived defeats and never lowered her banners. She had her knight-errants of old, and the spirit of chivalry has never died out of her heart.

She has nurtured her children with tender regard, and they rise up and eall her blessed. Under her aegis many a battle has been won over self in the inner life, and many in generous rivalry with others. Tales of old loves and youthful dreams trace back to her. She has seen the kindlings of genius and has inspired the endeavors of greatness. Sometimes she has witnessed the tragedy of defeats, but more often she has sent her sons and daughters hastening "down to the margin" to "follow the gleam."

The old college has traditions. And an atmosphere; a spirit; a Personality. SOUTHWESTERN has the gift of vision—clear-seeing and far. Hers is the spirit of eternal youth which forever dreams dreams; and the joyful hopefulness of the bridegroom coming out of his chamber and rejoicing as a strong man to run a race.

The future is not uncertain for Southwestern. The achievements of the past of which she is justly proud, the vigor of her life and the supporting love of thousands of friends in the present, the needs of the coming generations of Taxas youth for the training and Christian culture which she can give, and the manifest mind of the Providence whose guidance has been hers through all the years, make sure her growing prosperity and perpetual usefulness.

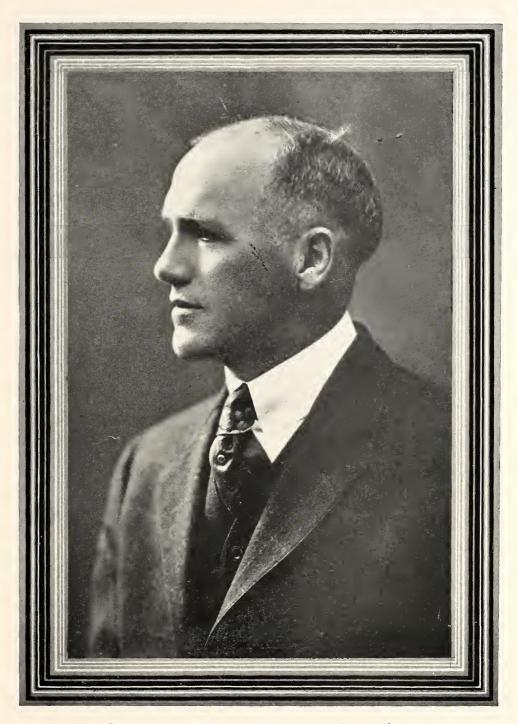

The fidelity to truth, the impulse in the direction of progress, the love of learning, the loyalty to the highest standards of intellectual discipline and moral character, the apprehension of a future big with the issues of an advancing civilization, and the devotion to the Master Teacher who foresaw a world made free by the truth, which have ever been characteristic of Southwestern University, together give the unquestionable guarantee of her immortality.

ALL HAIL TO SOUTHWESTERN!

Senior Class History

"One, two, three, four—sometimes we wish there were more"—was chanted by some bard quite wisely. Because at the close of our four years of college life, we have fond memories of happy days gone by.

"One"—our freshman year was filled with military duties—the S. A. T. C. you know! Notwithstanding this unusual routine, the other phases of eollege life were not neglected. Especially was this true of athleties during the year of '18-'19. At the close of this year, this large Freshman Class emerged into prominent upperclassmen, filled with the old-time pep and cuthusiasm. With the attainment of Sophomore and Junior standing, eame a fuller realization of responsibilities and development of personality.

Therefore at the close of our fourth year, we do not feel that any phase of activity has been neglected. Where some would lead in literary achievements, there were others to star on the athletic field and still others to add an artistic background.

But with all the changes, achievements and gloriously good times, we realize as the close of the fourth year draws near; just how much the old school has meant to us. There are memories of strenuous days of work, long hours in the classroom, athletic duties, and time spent in "ratting" on the campus. All these combine to strengthen the bonds of friendship, and to deepen our love and loyalty for our Alma Mater.

-Grace Anna Kerr.

Juniors

The Junior Class History

THE JUNIOR CLASS of 1921-22 has not only cooperated, gladly, in all social enjoyments of the student body, but it has been represented widely in Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. work, fine art skill, athletic activities, and scholarship enrollment.

A class which has proved to be so exceptional, will without doubt, make unusual "Seniors". However next year when we will be "Seniors" we intend to show a few things to our friends. We wish to place ourselves as a star guiding our fellows—the Junior Class of 1923; to be as a link binding the Sophomores to our dear Alma Mater; and as an inspiration to the coming Freshmen who can remember our records, as:

"One who never turned his back but marched breast forward Never doubted clouds would break, Never dreamed, though right were worsted, wrong would triumph Held we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better, Sleep to wake."

Sophomore

HEAR, ye sages, distant echoes of those long-remembered Soph days? Such a glory of achievement can not pass without an echo.

Our motto as Freshman was: When a Freshman, be a freshman; But when you become a sophomore, east aside all freshman ways. The pep with which we were freshmen is surpassed only by the zeal with which we are sophomores. Who can wonder, then, long after we are gone, that our history still echoes in the annals of Southwestern?

We have contributed our quota to athletic teams. In foot-ball the sophs contributed Joe Howze, Buddie Foster and Monroe Vivian. Buddie Foster proved such a success that the team elected him to captain the eleven of 1922. Frank Steinle represented our class in basket-ball and it was well represented. In base-ball Joe Dillard and Jo Howze are playing regularly with the nine and Gerard Boone and Buddie Foster are playing a large part of the time. Andrew Prude and W. L. Ayres are on the track team as the soph quota. So eight of the letters that were awarded this year to the athletics went to sophomores.

W. L. Ayres and James Hardy represented the sophomores in Intercollegiate debating. John Dunn is editor-in-ehief of the megaphone for next year, and a number of sophomores are working on the megaphone and sou'wester staff. W. L. Ayres is Y. M. C. A. president for next year, and other members of the soph elass are on the "Y" cabinets. Musical talent is not lacking, as is shown by our participation in the Glee Club and Orehestra. We boast the literary societies, and lend our loyal support toward making that phase of college life successful. Then where, but from this illustrious class, should the king of May, Jo Howze, be chosen?

We have entered every eollege activity, given the best that we had to give, and gained for ourselves accordingly. We intend, yet, to surpass ourselves, break our own records, and leave our famous foot-prints on the sands of time.

Loyal to southwestern, and to each other, none know, better than we, the "joys of being a soph".

Freshman

Freshman Class History

IN THE fall of, '21, one of the largest classes ever enrolled in Southwestern University began its college career. As to the appearance of this class, I will challenge anyone to find a better looking crowd of boys and girls, even though each individual wore the marked characteristics of a freshman.

But after a few hours of intermingling and conversing with upper-classmen, we matriculated and found our different classes without being utterly lost.

As the days passed into weeks our timidity lost itself in the interest we found in our new environment, and we entered heartily into the activities of the school.

After preforming "the duties connected with the acquisition of wisdom" we turned our thoughts at leisure to parties and other social functions. From the start success attended our efforts and many delightful times were the outcome of the endeavors of the class.

As to athletics, we were well represented on the (foot ball) gridiron, while two of the yell leaders were chosen from our midst. We claim one of the star baskt ball players, Lamar Camp, who has been chosen captain of the team of '23. Five of the members of the girls basket ball team were freshman.

Even though we realize we were the most ignorant class that ever came to S. U. we have learned to continue work and play, to know that enjoyment of the pleasures of life come only through a task well done.

"Perfect eloquence clothes men with kingly power."

For forty-seven years San Jacinto has had a flaming career. Under its tutelage many a lawyer and many a preacher has mastered the fine points of oratory. Nearly every town, city, and village in Texas is the home of one or more San Jac alumni, men and women whose success in life does not keep them from remembering the good old days in San Jacinto.

But the society has not loitered in the present. Last year Entriken and Williamson won the annual Brooks Prize Debate for San Jacinto. The society won in inter-society athletics. San Jacinto furnished two inter-collegiate debaters to the Alamo's one. This year the society furnished two debaters who as a team won a unanimous decision for Southwestern. Edwin Calhoun, a San Jac, represented Southwestern in the State Oratorical Association, winning second place. Ayres and Cook are preparing for the Commencement Debate and have a bright prospect of again turning the tide against the Alamos.

Organized in the early days of the institution, the Alamo Literary Society has been an important factor in the student life of Southwestern University, in the training of its members for the platform and public life. Her members are always interested in the different student activities and she always claims a share of the honors. Many men prominent both in church and state affairs were old Alamos and they still are loyal to that organization which they love so dearly. Although the literary society is not so prominent as it was several years ago due to the fact that other student activities have been inaugurated, yet the literary society remains the center of activities around which all others must rotate.

THE year's work by the Y. M. C. A. has been characterized by sincerity of purpose and consistent effort on the part of the Cabinet, by the multiplicity of activities in which the organization has taken part and by the success which, with hardly an exception, has come to every undertaking.

Foundations for a successful year were laid last spring when five men received the inspiration from the Hollister (Mo.) Students Conference. Plans were made during the summer and before the beginning of the year they were being carried out. Letters were sent to Freshmen to-be. When they arrived in Georgetown, they were given help in registering, finding rooms, and general assistance in becoming oriented. In co-operation with the Y. W. C. A. the annual Freshman reception was made an unusual success. A stag party gave Mood Hallites an opportunity to become acquainted.

During the entire year the various departments of the organization have succeeded in accomplishing much toward the general purpose of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon Devotional meetings have given students opportunities for self-expression as well as to hear out of town speakers. The custom of study groups at the homes of the professor met with the usual success. "Information Week" and "Find Yourself Week" met a much felt need. The social side of life has been looked out for by the Y. M. C. A. in conjunction with its sister organization. Several picnics have afforded enjoyment to students. A mammoth carnival in the fall was a feature of the year. In bringing Salvi, the Harpist, to Georgetown the "Y" did another real service to the college community.

Recreation has been supplied by interclass games and by indoor baseball and volley ball.

This bird's Eye view of the activities of the Southwestern Young Men's Christian Association suggests some of the work in which the organization is engaged and which will be a basis for the work which it will do next year. Upon the Campus it has repeatedly been singled out as the liveliest organization in the University. At the State Y. M. C. A. Convention the local organization was given credit for being the best association without a paid secretary in the State.

In addition to what has been undertaken, the new president and cabinet have larger visions of what should be done and next year promises a renewal of increased usefulness of the Y. M. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A.

"The most vital organization among the women of Southwestern University" is what the Y. W. C. A. is in reality? Every girl in the eollege, especially every girl in the Woman's Building, has vitally felt the influence of this organization.

With its many departments constantly at work, The Y. W. influences practically every phase of college life. Vesper services on each Sunday evening and prayer services on Wednesday evenings furnish spiritual expression and inspiration. Stunt nights, parties, the carnival, and the well-furnished recreation room in the Annex afford opportunities for enjoyment and for social life. The work of the hiking club, sunrise breakfasts and tennis and croquet help keep the girls fit physically. And much valuable executive training is gained in committee and cabinet work.

The Y. W. C. A. has been enabled to run on a sound financial basis, and has succeeded in enlisting in its membership practically every girl in the Woman's Building. Even greater things are being planned for the new year.

Under the able direction of Miss Claire Payne, Southwestern sent out a very good Glee Club this year. The main trip of twelve days included Nixon, Yoakum, Flatonia, Columbus, Houston and Hempstead, while the Club also sang at a great number of places on week end trips. An exceptionally good time is reported at Houston where about three hundred Southwesterners had arranged a fine banquet for the Club, at the University Club, and where a good program was given. The Club had a very successful season in every sense of the word.

THE Southwestern University Scholarship Society, devoted to the stimulation, promotion and recognition of scholarship, was founded under the inspiration of President Charles McTyeire Bishop in 1915. Its membership was composed of President Bishop, the two Phi Beta Kappa members of the faculty, Professors R. J. Eddy and J. L. McGhee and twenty-one students, elected by the faculty because of their high averages in courses in the college, and their reputation for excellent character and promise for successful application of their attainments. Since that time, each year, new members have been elected by the society and the faculty according to the requirements as set forth in the constitution of the society, until at present, one hundred and forty-seven persons have been honored with membership. So successful has the society been, that out of it has grown a movement initiated largely by Dr. John C. Granbery for the organization of similar societies in standard colleges and universities in Texas and their affiliation. To this end a conference was held at Southwestern on February 22, 1922, of faculty and student representatives from the University of Texas, Texas Woman's College, Southern Methodist University, Baylor College for Women and Southwestern University. At this highly successful conference it was unanimously decided to organize the Scholarship Societies of Texas, the general outline of the constitution was formed and a committee ordered to carry forth the plans of organization. This is at present being successfully accomplished and the new organization will be functioning during the session of 1922-1923.

The Scholarship Society is the most democratic organization on the campus; its members are chosen because of their merit, for which they alone are responsible. Each student that enters Southwestern at present, is a potential member of the society. It is considered the highest scholastic honor attainable at Southwestern to be elected to membership in the Scholarship Society.

Meetings are held regularly once a month. Annually a picnic is held. And on the First Tuesday in June of each year an illustrious scholar is invited to visit Southwestern and deliver an address upon some subject of vital interest to scholars before the Society and the student body and community. The address this year will be delivered on June, 6th by Dean H. Y. Benedict, of the University of Texas, who will speak upon the Subject: "The Relation between high scholarship in College and success in after life."

THE Ministerial Association is composed of a band of men who are preparing for the active ministry and have organized for the purpose of studying the problems relative to their work. The organization meets once a week at which time it holds a business session in addition to the discussion of its vital issues.

Other than the regular meetings of the Association, active work is carried on by its members in neighboring towns and nearby rural districts. This work includes the conducting of Church and Sunday School services and visits to the Poor Farm and Jail.

The Association aims to foster and shape the best moral ideals of the student body, and to develop an intelligent enthusiasm among its members.

Prospective Gymnasium and Athletic Field

ATE in the fall term of this year, just as the Basket Ball team was settling down to work, Southwestern received, what seemed at that time, a powerful blow, when Godbey Gym was destroyed by fire. Not only the gym and all the apparatus but also the new football, baseball, and basket ball uniforms, which were stored there, were swept away, leaving the basket ball team without uniforms or a place for practice. But the ashes of the old had hardly cooled before the ever-evident Southwestern spirit was busy in preparing for the new and greater gymansium which is to be.

The immediate thing to be done of eourse was to build a temporary structure for the accommodation of the athletie events for the time being. In this work, the people of Georgetown took the lead in offering time, labor, and money toward the project. Only their co-operation made it possible for the temporary structure to be ready for use almost immediately after the Christmas holidays. But great as was this achievement of replacing the destroyed gymnasium by one equal to it within the span of three weeks, the authorities had greater dreams than these, and a Campaign to raise funds for building a permanent Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium was immediately started.

With the money raised in this way and from the proceeds of the educational fund it will soon be possible to construct one of the most up to date Y. M. C. A. Gymansiums in the state. It is planned to locate this building on the Campus of the University northwest of the Administration building, and around this building a modern athletic field with an artistic stone wall is to be constructed.

When this is done we may stand with the athlete of tomorrow and see the sun rise upon a brighter day for athletics in the greater Southwestern.

W. J. GARDNER, Athletic Director

COACH GARDNER is a law graduate of Carlisle and has practised in two states. Trained as a player at Carlisle when Glen Warner, the most famous and widely known coach in America, was acheiving his success, he acheived national fame as an All-American end and lettered in four major sports winning twelve letters. During the war he won a place on Walter Camp's All-Service eleven. Gardner has coached at the Manual Training School of Louisville, Ky., University of Otterbein, Ohio, Sewanee and University of North Dakota. He took up the position of Athletic Director at Southwestern this year and has made a big success.

Southwestern has had a number of coaches but this is the first true athletic director who has ever really been an athletic director. It is Gardner's ideal to get every student of Southwestern to engage in athletics to some extent whether intercollegiate, interclass or gymnasium training.

First Row:—Lamb, Manager, Weinert, McMurray, Brown, Mateer, Winstead, Gardner, Coach.

Second Row:—Tipton, W. Foster, Daniels, Campbell, Sessions.

Third Row:—B. Foster, Cap't eleet, Vivion, H. Hardt, Hawkins, Reynolds, Bryan, Jaekson, Goforth.

Fourth Row:—Howze, Heyne, Camp, Tull, Crump, Roach, Captain, Morse, Love, C. Hardt.

Altho the past season was not resplendent in victories and championship the eleven was a scrappy one worthy of any college. The team always played a clean hard game and Southwestern points with pride to its football team. Southwestern placed several men on the All-State and All-T. I. A. A. mythical clevens. A large number of new men were developed and will be mountains of strength in the 1922 team. The men who will be back next year are: Winert, McMurray, Skipworth, Kidd, Mateer, Tipton, Daniels, Crump, B. Foster, Vivion, Hawkins, Reynolds, Jackson, Goforth, Heyne, Tull, and Camp.

ROACH-Center and Captain

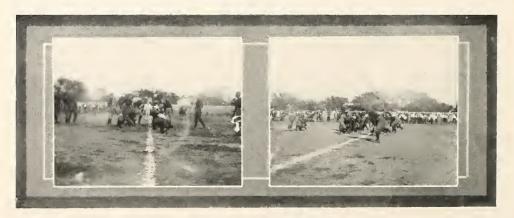

Roach, generally known as "Doug", concluded his football career as captain of the Pirate eleven. "Doug" was one of the best centers in the state, being mentioned for All-T. I. A. A. He is especially remembered for his work in the Howard Payne game.

FOSTER-End and Captain Elect

Buddie, after several years absence in the navy, returned this year to fill a wing position on the team. Buddie played a brand of football that gave him an end on the All-T. I. A. A. and caused him to be selected to lead the '22 eleven.

HARDT-Tackle and Guard

Where big men were needed, "Babe" was there. Unlike most heavy line men, "Babe" is fast, showing skill in breaking up end runs and line backs. Hardt played his last season for Southwestern with credit to himself and the team.

FOSTER-Fullback

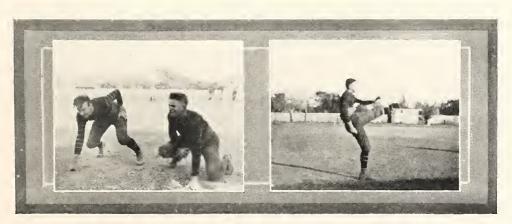

Everybody knows "Bluc" as a hard trainer and a fighting player. Foster can be relied upon to put his best into every game, every plunge. As a steady, hard worker, Coach elected to let Foster be the driving power of the team.

MORSE—Halfback

One of the old-timers at the pigskin game is "Dick" Morse of San Antonio. "Dick" is a fast man who can keep even with the fastest. Morse's wonderful game this year was the Texas-Southwestern game.

CRUMP-Halfback and Quarter

Crump was the find of Southwestern this year. Tall, rangy, fast and crafty, he always gained ground. Altho playing but two games at quarter, he was picked for second T. I. A. A. on this count.

CAMP—Guard

This is Camp's first year at Southwestern and on the Pirate eleven. However he is a veteran footballer as shown by his appearance at right guard every game of the season.

HEYNE-End

Heyne regularly filled a wing on the team this season. No one has forgotten Heyne's 60 yard run in the Austin College game that started the rush which ended over the goal line.

CAMPBELL—Quarter

Campbell combines the speed and headwork of a good quarter. He is an old man in the game as he has been the Pirate field general for several years. He piloted the team thru most of the games this year.

McMURRAY-End and Tackle

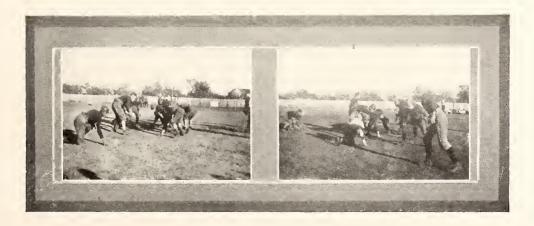

"Mac" knows footall inside and out. He played either tackle or end every game. Whatever "Mac" played, he always broke up a play that was within distance and he has a long reach.

HOWZE-Fullback

Jo Howze is a new man in Southwestern football. But Jo out punted every opposing kicker he faced this season. In the S. M. U. game against a torrent of wind, he averaged thirteen yards better than his opponent.

BRYAN—Tackle.

This is Marvin's Second year handling the ropes on the Pirate cutter. Bryan is a mountain of strength whenever a good tackle is needed. He will be ready to do his part on a winning team in '22.

VIVION-Guard

Vivion was successful in his first year of football. He is a big man and knows how to use his size. He is at his best when halting an enemy plunge thru his position.

MATEER—Halfback

"Father Time" was a player of unknown quality this year—that is at the first of the season. But from the Austin College Game on, the fans knew he was a half who could play football. Mateer is small but fast as lightning.

HAWKINS—Tackle

Altho a first year man, Hawkins played a class of football that gave him several mentions for All-State tackle. He was especially good at opening holes and smashing opposing plays. "Hawk" is remembered for his great game at Waco,

REYNOLDS-Guard

"Pottie" proved a great guard for Gardner this year. He reveled in opening holes and helping "Doug" block a center rush. Reynolds should be mentioned for his good playing in the San Marcos game.

LAMB-Manager

Lamb may not be a stellar football player but he is a stur football manager. Aided by Mullen and Boone, he managed the team in a commendable manner from the beginning of the season straight thru.

DANIEL-Halfback and End

"Red's" middle name is speed and lots of it. He played end in the first part of the season and, when Crump was shifted to quarter, he filled Crump's half with credit.

LAMB-Forward and Guard

Lamb is another four-year man in basket-ball. He was captain of the 1920 five, an All-T. I. A. A. guard last year and a superb guard and forward this year. He is an excellent point-gleaner, getting eleven field goals and one foul in the Trinity game.

HERRERA-Forward

This is "Nemo's fourth year on the Pirate five and his second year as the scoring machine of Southwestern. Last year he totaled 238 points and this year he turned an even 300. Herrera was the captain of the five last year and easily the star this season.

FOSTER-Guard, Captain

Captain Foster deserves much credit in piloting the 1922 five to such marked success. He was very successful in keeping the team working as a unit. "Blue" is a wonderful guard. For about thirty minutes during the last San Marcos Normal game the Teachers did not score a goal due mainly to his efforts.

CAMP-Guard and Center-Captain-cleet

Due to his excellent playing during this his first year on the squad, Lamar Camp was elected to captain the team of '23. With such a field general, the Pirate five should be a worthy contender next year. Camp starred in the Sam Houston Normal series.

HEYNE—Center

Heyne was good at both basket-ball and aviation this year. He played almost as much in the air as on the floor. Heyne was at his best this year in the Temple Triangle game. Thruout the season, he regularly out jumped his opponent.

STEINLE-Guard

Frank has worked hard on the Pirate squad for two years and everyone was glad to see him letter this year. Steinle was ready at all times to fill either of the Southwestern guards. He played good ball in the game with Grubbs Vocational College.

MATEER—Forward

"Father Time" is built for basket-ball. He is fast and shifty. Mateer was general utility man of the Pirates this year. He showed his superior sportsmanship and general ability in the San Marcos Baptist Academy game.

PEARSON-Catcher-3rd Year.

Altho the smallest man on the team, Johnny is the clean-up man of the Pirate crew. Pearson hit often and hard. No one will forget Johnny's double that won the Sam Houston Normal game.

DILLARD-3rd Base and Shortstop-2nd Year.

Joe came to us from Bartlett and we are hoping that they will send another like him. In the infield Dillard can be used anywhere and everywhere. Joe is a veteran member of the Pirate wrecking crew.

WINSTEAD—Outfielder—2nd Year.

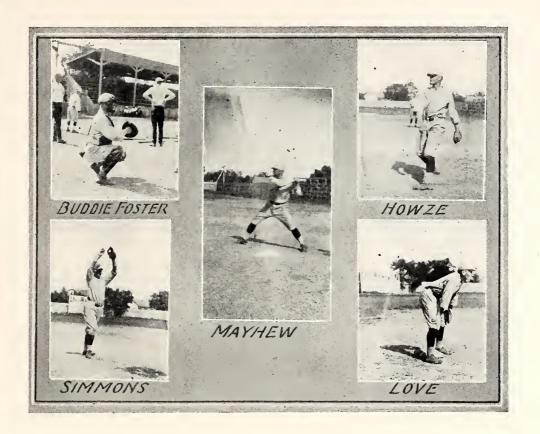

Winstead is captain and chief swat-king of the '22 nine. Byron hits game after game without off-days and generally he hits for two or more bases.

BELL-Pitcher-3rd Year.

Harvey is the only veteran pitcher of the team this year. Bell did the largest part of the mound duty for the team and never lost a game.

HERRERA-Shortstop-4th Year.

"Nemo" concluded his baseball career this year with crowning success. As lead-off man he got so many walks that it got to be a habit.

B. FOSTER-Catcher-3rd Year.

Buddie played two years of baseball for Southwestern before the war. He returned this year and donned Mother Dear's elothes again. Foster was utility man.

HOWZE-Pitcher-1st Year.

Howze is a splendid example of a combination athlete-student. In his first year on the nine he did a large part of the hurling. Jo was good every one of his thirty-four innings in the box.

MAYHEW—Outfielder and Pitcher—2nd Year.

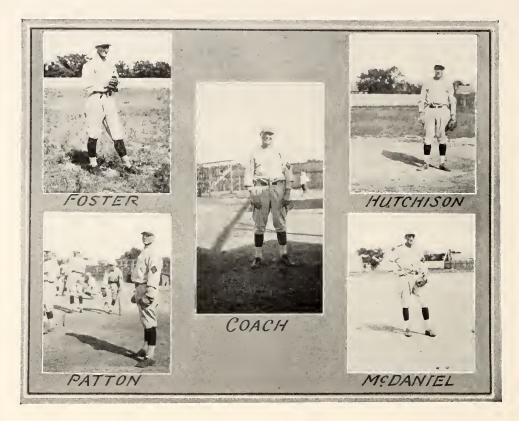

As an outfielder "Lefty" is superb and when needed he is as good a pitcher as is made. In the field he covers more territory than any other gardner.

SIMMONS-Pitcher-1st Year.

Simmons is the only Freshman on the team, but he adequately represents his class. Bennet bids to be Southwestern's best moundsman next year.

LOVE-2nd Base-2nd Year.

Love is a protegee of Mike Flanigan, developed last year and in his prime this season. His ability to "look 'em over" advanced him to lead-off man.

W. FOSTER-Outfielder-1st Year,

Batting Average							.412
Fielding Average							.875

"Blue" is going to make his fourth letter this year unless providentially hindered. He is playing regularly in the field and playing well. His batting average speaks for itself.

HUTCHINSON-Outfielder and 1st Base-1st Year.

Batting	Average .						.286
Fielding	Average						.932

At last Hutch is out of the ineligible column and on the regular team. He is holding down the initial bag at present and gaining a reputation as a Swattest.

PATTON-3rd Base-1st Year.

Pat is in Red Ostergard's shoes at third this year and he is filling them well. Patton's hitting was a feature of the Sam Houston Normal series.

McDANIEL—1st Base—1st Year.

Batting Average						.250
Fielding Average						937

Mac is the third first sacker out of the McDaniel family and Mac is no exception to the high reputation set by the other two.

The only trouble with this old nag was that she needed about three more rocks tied to her in order to sink her to the damp dark bottoms of the deep blue sea. The picture was drawn too early in the season to include the rest of the sinkers but she got them. Out of six games between Southwestern and S. M. U. this year, Southwestern won only five and the sixth was a nothing to nothing tie. Was it not a very successful athletic year?

COLLEGE YEAR

Chick: Sir, I want permission to spend three days in Waco.

Dean: Ah! you want three days of grace. Chick: No, sir, three more days of Mildred.

Arthur Long: Babe, why don't you stay in school next year, while you can make your way.

Babe: I want to make two ways.

THIS IS NO JOKE, BUT TRUE—

A HAZY SUBJECT

Yes. it is almost extinct. The species is nearly destroyed. This time honored manifestation of life that has lived and thrived since the time when Euripides ripped and Plato played has almost been wiped from the face of the earth. Its "hazy" form will never again be seen here, lurking in the shadows or creeping quietly around a dark corner to suddenly startle some poor, innocent, little "Fish."

Slime Bludworth: I wish you'd put your foot where it belongs.

Nemo: If I did you wouldn't sit down for a week.

Spann: Dr. Tinsley, what is heredity?

Dr. Tinsley: Something that a father believes in until his son begins acting like a darn fool!!!!

Prof. Carnathan: Did Martin Luther die a natural death?

Slime: No. sir, he was excommunicated by a "bull".

THE FRESHMAN GRINS

Coach: I saw you down town last night after eleven.

Farmer Brown: No, sir, I was only after onc.

Hay: That there college don't spare any expense on their men; teachin' them to milk I guess.

Seed: That so?

Hay: Yeps. Jeb writes that they have bought Jerseys for the use of the football team.

Dinty Moore: "Some pup you have there. Where do you keep him?"

Mac: "In my room of course."

Dinty: "But it ain't healthy to keep a dog in your room."

Mac: "Well, he's a strong dog and seems to stand it pretty well."

HAVE YOUR LOVE AFFAIRS TROUBLED YOU? ASK CHRISTABEL—SHE KNOWS

By CHRISTABEL

Dear Christabel:

I am a young man, a senior in the University and after four long years, I find myself unable to attract the weaker sex. Though I have tried to develop my charms, and often make dates, it seems that my dates are like some doctor's prescriptons—they are unrefillable. I am a frat man but my pin gains me no dates. What am I to do?

R. N. WADE

Dear Mr. Wade:

When you take girls over to the little store stick with them; do not journey back and forth, bringing over a dozen or so at intervals. I also suggest that you refrain from talking so much, give the girl a chance to say a word or two. Avoid the frivolous and light subjects and stick to serious realities.

Dear Miss Christabel:

I have the misfortune to be from a small town, but since I came up to Southwestern I am rapidly acquiring a blasé air. I have had half a dozen dates with one of the Phis, a senior by the way, and my, he simply raves about me, but oh, Christabel, I fear that something is coming between us. He often makes trips to Taylor without my consent. What, oh what shall I do to remove this obstacle? I fear I must go back to Bartlett. Help me, dear.

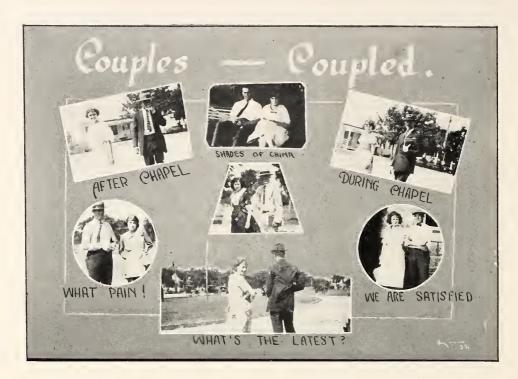

K. A., I fear that you are too mournful by disposition. Smile at all the boys and perhaps this Phi Delta Theta will sit up and take notice. Perhaps that was his coat between you two.

Dear Christabel:

This is now my third year in S. U. and I am worrying for fear I will have to become a school teacher unless I find someone to whom I can give my trident. I have about decided to discard my Scholarship Society pin, bob my hair, wear two-colored shoes, and be a regular flapper. I do not want to do anything radical, but really, my dear Christabel, I am so desperate.

"Just Juanita"

THE JUNIOR GROWLS,

"Just Juanita." I fear that you will use the wrong tactics if you should do anything like this. You ought to win men by appealing to their intellectual tastes, rather than by mere eye-tempting effects. Wear shell-rimmed glasses. If you can not get them in Georgetown, perhaps Mr. Wentz can order them for you. Also ask him where he gets that "artistic" line of his. Adopt it.

Dear Christabel:

I know that I am a handsome man, have a perfect figure, but am handicapped by a loathsome nickname. They call me "Potty", I have a Ford sedan and the girls all fall for me, when I trip them. My physique is said to resemble that of Apollo, and while I do not want to seem egotistical, I am conceded to be fairly handsome. The famous Zeta freshman from Corsicana has caught my eye, and as I have been a sober, Sunday-school boy, I don't see why one of the brothers should beat my time.

J. W. R., Jr.

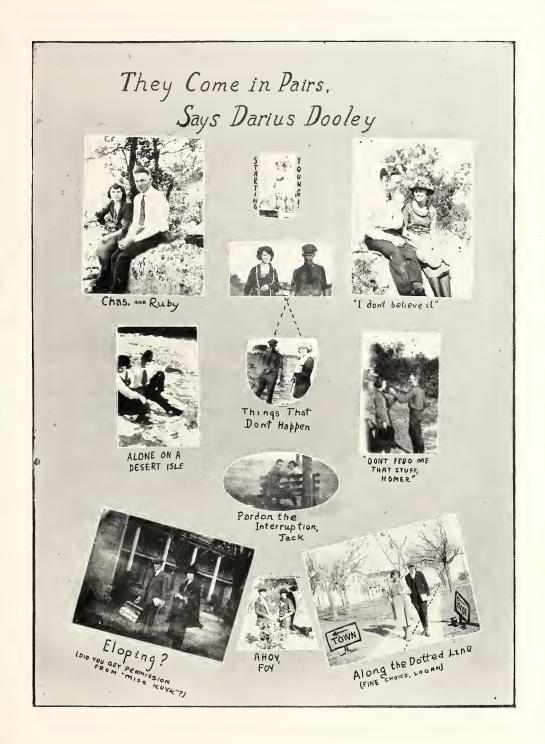

You should not spend so much time at your books, J. W. R., Jr., the girls will think that you are a regular book-worm. Liven up a little bit. Don't be too Puritanical. You should learn to dance, smoke in public, and use a little slang around the other sex. They will then think that you have a sporting streak and that you are not "just like a preacher", after all. Your excess amount of energy makes you work too hard, you need a rest.

My dearest Christabel:

I want to tell you about one of my pets. It is the cutest thing you ever saw, has curly hair and all the girls around the Annex call it Izzy.

It looks like a man, acts like a man, smokes like a man, and says "Gosh, darn." What is it? It's my little itsybisty, tinesy-winesy Izzy. But Izzy worries me at times.

THE SENIOR KNOWS.

I made a date once with somebody else and little Izzy said, "Break it or I'll cry." I broke it with a little pink fib. After breaking two or three, I now have great proficiency in this art. But am worried because my conscience does not worry me any more. I have always been a good girl before I came to Southwestern, but got in with a wicked crowd and they pulled the political strings and got me on the beauty page. I detest popularity, and just hate to have every he-flapper in school hanging around me. What can I do to get a date with some muscular giant from out in the open places; I don't like tea-hounds any more. Southwestern is too fast a place for me I fear. They dance on the sly here.

Mary Pickem.

Mary, my dear, you are, as you say, in the wrong environment. I suggest that you write home to Beau-mont and get permission to enter a convent. You should marry a sailor; sailors come from out in the open places.

Dear Miss Christabel:

I am in a strange position. I am in one of the fraternities here and am one of the biggest frat men in our University, though not physically speaking. I hail from Houston—the land of Magnolias, sunshine, and rice. The thing which troubles me is, however, the fact that I have never worn a frat pin. I lost mine and I regard it as inaccessable. You see my folks paid for one, and when I go home this June, what shall I say in reply to the question, "Where is your frat pin. Harry?"

ear Harry:

My woman's intuition leads me to believe that your pin is now located on the second floor. East wing, of the Woman's Building, Southwestern University, Georgetown, Williamson County, Texas. Slip up there some night and search the place.

To "Ditty" C.: If you will send a two-cent, stamped envelope to me in care of this publication, I will send you full directions on how to reduce and win a steady.

Dear Miss Christabel:

I am a Southern Gentleman from Rockwall, Texas, suh, and will soon be degreed from Southwest'n University. Though I have always considered myself an independent, I feel as if I am falling into the clutches of one of the most bewitching vampires eva' created by Divine Powa's. It has often been said that the South produces the finest horses, the finest liquor, and the finest women. To my certain knowledge the first of these is true, the second is also true according to the Fellow-Knights, but as for the third proposition, I can not be loyal to my Southland. This lady from the desert of California has enraptured me. I do not love her, yet I always crave her. Please suggest some remedy.

"JAWN"

Jawn, you should emigrate to Ireland; there are no brunettes in that country.

Dear Chrissy:

I am planning to be a missionary, but have discovered the ideal man and do not want to leave this country. He is just a gem and is so witty. I am struggling between two desires. Which shall I follow? (He sings.)

Ruby Done.

Since he has such a lovely voice, let him do the singin' and you do the prayin' and preachin'—then you can have heart's full desires.

Christabel, dear:

I am about to lose little Oscaw. He is a diminutive lad and is a favorite with all the girls around the Annex. It is only through my winning ways and, as the girls tell me, my beauty, that I can hold this handsome Greek god. He is so masculine, so appealing. I want my Oscaw. Sincerely,

Ann.

I suggest that you get him to make a date, presumably, for church, and that you stop by the wayside, and sweet-talk him. Try walking up and down the railroad. It is good exercise and will improve your unsurpassable beauty, if you do it at night.

ONE SWALLOW DOES NOT MAKE THE WORLD GO AROUND

Their meeting it was sudden,
Their parting it was sad;
She gave her young life freely
'Twas the only one she had,
She sleeps beneath the willows,
She's resting peaceful now.
That's what always happens
When a freight train meets a cow.

GUTS

The title of my verse, I fear,
May jar upon the cultured ear
And shock the squeamish and precise,
Whose speech is always over—nice,
But yet the simple truth remains
That, whether men have brawn or brains,
The thing that lifts them from the ruts
Is guts.

With purpose firm as adamant
It meets the cowards whine, "I can't",
And in a voice emphatical
Declares the idler's "It may be"
To roseate reality,
And laughs with scorn at "ifs" and "buts",
Does guts.

It picks the fighter from the dust
In which he falls, and cries "you must!"
Till, heartened and aroused anew,
He struggles up and battles through.
It rips the planking from the floor
And bursts the oaken prison door
That Fate or Fortune coldly shuts—
That's guts!

I know an old man wrinkled and gray Who sat and thought and talked one day. And while he thought his thoughts seemd far away And when he talked he still was young and gay.

I asked him how he stayed so young And I gained this priceless truth: He was living, now his prime was gone, On THE INTEREST OF WELL SPENT YOUTH.

D. Duck: I think it is the funniest joke, that when you've no money you're broke.

IT DOESN'T PAY TO BE CROOKED, REMEMBER THE CORK SCREW IS OUT OF A JOB -

MAN

When the earth was formed, many million years ago, a beautiful garden was placed upon it. The Great Maker placed creatures of every description in this garden. There were creatures that walked on two legs, some that walked on four, some flew, others swam in the water, Some were feathered, others grew wool. When the garden was populated there were over a hundred-thousand different kinds of creatures; but the Maker was not satisfied. He had done a noble work but he wished to combine the qualities and the dispositions of all these animals, birds, and fish into one. This was a hard task so two creatures were made.

One was woman. She combined all that was pure, sweet, and beautiful in creation. But the other dispositions of the animals had to be accounted for. The Maker took the helplessness of the possum, the treachery of the cat, the intelligence of the ass, the conceit of the cock, and the form of the awkard, ugly ape, and placed them in one animal. The result was Man.

ALL JAY BIRDS THINK THEY ARE MOCKING BIRDS—

SELAH

Teach me that 60 minutes make an hour, 16 ounces one pound and 100 cents one dollar. Help me so to live that I can lie down at night with a clear conscience, without a gun under my pillar and unhaunted by the faces of those to whom I brought pain. Grant that I may earn my meal ticket on the square, and that in earning it I may do unto others as I would have them do unto me. Deafen me to the jingle of tainted money and to the rustle of unholy skirts. Blind me to the faults of the other fellow, but reveal to me my own. Guide me so that each night I look across the dinner table at my wife, who has been a blessing to me. I will have nothing to conceal. Keep me young enough to laugh with little children, and sympathetic enough to be considerate of old age. And when comes the day of darkened shades and the smell of flowers, the tread of footsteps and the crunching of wheels in the yard- make the ceremony short and the epitaph simple-"Here lies a man".

WHAT KIND OF BIRD DO YOU THINK YOU ARE?

MODERNITY

If the world should gain any greater supply
Of Reds and Strikers and Bolsheviks,
Let us return to the Darwin land
And talk again in monkey squeaks!

If we are still to be ridden by Profiteers
And deafened by Poverty's wails,
Let us return to the Darwin land
And follow each other's tails!

If we still must be haunted by billows of erime,
And pursued by felon's recruit,
Let us return to the Darwin land
And civilization refute;

If all pleasures away are soon to be chased
By fanatic reformers— O me!
Let us return to the Darwin land
And live in a cocoanut tree!

If the beautiful dances we used to enjoy, Replaced by the jazz yet must be, Let us return to the Darwin land Where dancing is scratching a flea!

If our women folk still must leave off
Some things they really should wear,
Let us return to the Darwin land,
Where any old clothing is rare!

D. Duck: Woman is man's better half.

Under Dogg: Yes, but if she doesn't take to using more taste and clothes she may well be called his improper fraction.

NO POOR GIRL HAS TO STAY AT HOME NOWDAYS BE-CAUSE SHE HAS NOTHING TO WEAR.

A girl in short skirts is in danger, says a reformer. Shucks, every Southwesterner looks after her.

Slime Beery: What do you think of girls wearing rolled stockings? Joe Durrenberger: They're all right as far as I can see.

"Young man", said the senior, "don't you do it."

"If you kiss me you'll rue it."
So he stopped like a boob,
Now she thinks him a rube,
And he is—that's all there is to it.

"Thank you for the flowers you sent" she said, And she smiled and blushed and drooped her head.

"I'm sorry for the words I spoke last night,

Your sending the flowers proved that you were right—Forgive me''.

He forgave her.

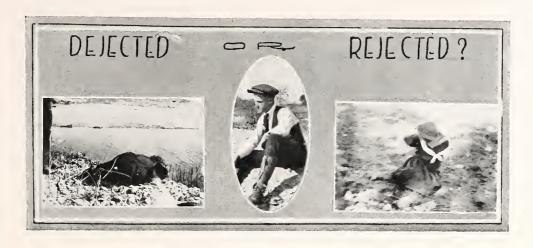

And as they walked and talked beneath the bowers. He wondered who in h—— sent her those flowers.

Do Duck: Should a freshman send flowers to a girl for a party date?

Under Dogg: No, a green blooming idiot is enough for her to have along.

A MEMBER OF THE GLEE CLUB GETS LETTER FROM AN ACQUAINTANCE MADE IN.....

..... Dear:

You and I know that which most of the Eternal Eves and masculines were born either a century too early or else too late to comprehend—and that—that "Friendship is the wine of existence, Love the dram-drinking"; also that "Apollo shows himself to few; who sees him is great". The Gods were kind to you and me; we are not physically depleted and can stand love without becoming intoxicated; but these young lads and lasses that are advocates of "Single blessedness—a fib, dust thou art to dust returneth was not spoken of the rib" are just "intellectual obstacles". Their hindrance is to be likened unto having the "Rock of Gibraltar" for a neck—tie.

Way back yonder in Genesis, one Adam and Eve started an establishment or precedent of matrimonial congeniality that all of us other Adams and Eves (you and I excepted) have been practicing on our own front porch ever since.

Now-don't you know not one institution can last forever without becoming shaky or corrupt? What I am about to begin to start to commence to tell you is: Do "look before you leap" or else you are likely to experience such torture as you never sensed before—that of stubbing your toe in the matrimonial path or of serving as a mental crutch for some poor long suffering little Eve. I know it to be rumored that there is fascination in self sacrifice, but also, I have heard it rumored that "absence makes the heart grow fonder" and when you go merrily skipping off to some cold and frozen clime to have fond fancies about your far away girl, along following closely behind comes a disgustingly chilly three cornered note saying with all the laconic force of a cannon ball "out of sight out of mind" and "he who is nearest is dearest" and the nearest is somebody else. Enough said. You cannot depend on rumors and people that are not temperate in love drinking. However I do so hope that the rumor of your romantic travels with the Glee Club might bring you back to ..... and to ....

(The above letter was found in M. H., southeast corner room, 2nd east. The addressee remained unconscious one hour and forty-seven minutes.)

D. Duck: I think its the funniest joke, that when you've no money you're broke.

Under Dog: And when you've no brains, it's a fact, you're not broke at all,—only cracked.

CIRCUMSTANCES ALTER KISSES

A FRESHMAN'S DREAM

(Apologies due from Poe)

One night I lay a dreaming With the moonlight through my window streaming, "Twas during the exam season As I pondered rule and reason, Suddenly there came a sounding as of someone fiercely pounding, Pounding on my chamber door.

Then with fists all bent up double, I bounced up in search of trouble, Trouble for the pounder on my chamber door. Wide I flung my stately portal, Alas: there stood no living mortal, But instead a gruesome sight, 'Nough to give a stone a fright.

In a row all dejected stood the books that I'd neglected, Yes, neglected for a month or more.

And to-morrow was exam—

For which I fain would cram—

Cram until my brain could hold no more.

So I said by way of greeting,
In a manner most entreating,
"Come within, my precious bookies
Give to me your mental cookies,
I would use in the morn."
But I stood there all forlorn—
Forlorn I had to wait for a blinding-cruel fate.
For those books with indignation
Left me there in irritation—
Standing at my chamber door,
And my eyes with tear-drops smarted as they solemnly departed,
Chanting mournfully—
"Never more! Never more!"

THE KISS

A kiss is a peculiar proposition. Of no use to one, yet absolute bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing, the young man has to steal it and the old man has to buy it. The Baby's right, the lover's privilege, the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl, faith; to a married woman, hope; and to an old maid, charity.

Why You Should Learn

Take the Right Road

You are now at the cross-roads of life, and two paths are before you. One crowded and teeming with human beings, leads to the depths of failure. The other, thinly sprinkled with men and women of courage and ambition, stretches out to the glowing heights of success—to comfort, influence, wealth and independence.

Which road will you take? Will you choose the crowded, sunken road that leads to the human scrap heap, or will you take the clear, open road to success—the road upon which there is plenty of room for YOU—the friendly road, where everyone has a happy smile of welcome? Will you choose that road which is lined with everything that makes life worth living?

Now is the time to decide. Both roads beekon, and remember, you will—you must—take one. Which will it be? Let us help you choose the right road!

It Always Pays

Develop your Great Natural Powers

Business men want SPECIALISTS—and they are eager and willing to pay high salaries for their services. They want young men and young women who know ONE THING WELL—who are trained to think and to lead. These responsible positions with their big incomes and their broad opportunities are waiting for you.

Every difficulty that stands in your way can be swept aside by the power of SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE—by the vital mental force in you that is waiting to be discovered and developed. Knowing that the secret of success rests with you alone, will you be content to keep this master energy locked and uscless? Will you be satisfied to follow the crowds of purposeless drifters to inevitable failure, or will you learn the truths of success, profit by their guidance, and gain a position of power and influence in the business world? Success is beckening to you now! We will show you the way, if you will but ask.
